Time

Time is a definite or general period
When an action continues or takes place.
Its basic concept is beyond understanding
For its as intangible and infinite as space.

Time passes quickly; changes occur,
And its by this succession of events,
That we are conscious of, and measure
time
By clocks and our various instruments.

Time is an indifferent and subtle thief
As it steals our days so silently away.
And it travels so rapidly and quickly that
From sophomore to senior seems but one day.

The sophomores eagerly await the time
When they will be juniors, oh so proud;
The juniors anxiously await the time
When they will be seniors, oh so loud!

And the seniors hopefully look toward the future,
With maybe a backward glance with tears;
But events occur, and time marches onward
As it ushers in the forthcoming years.

Birdsell Takes Over As Principal

Principal Don F. Birdsell

This Monument contains pictures and stories that will be treasures for all of in the years ahead. It is always exciting to look through a yearbook and see a complete school year spelled out for us page by page. We owe our special appreciation to those who worked hard and long to prepare this book.

The student body and staff of Washington have joined together to make this a memorable year. Our academic accomplishments have been great and our co-curricular activities have experienced much purpose and success.

Those of us remaining at Washington wish success and happiness to our 1961 seniors as they leave us on graduation day. We extend a warm invitation to call on us often whether it be for assistance in some way as they strive toward life's goals or a visit to keep pleasant acquaintances strong.

Don Birdsell

Mr. Birdsell, our new principal, a graduate of Luther College and a receiver of degrees from U. of Minn., State Univ. of Iowa and Texas Western at El Paso; came to Washington last year from Waverly High School to be our assistant principal. Mr. Birdsell, as principal, is responsible for the school, supervision of instruction and to offer an educational program to the students.

His family includes his wife and son. His outside interests are playing bridge, model railroading, and reading.

Efficient Staff Runs Washington Smoothly

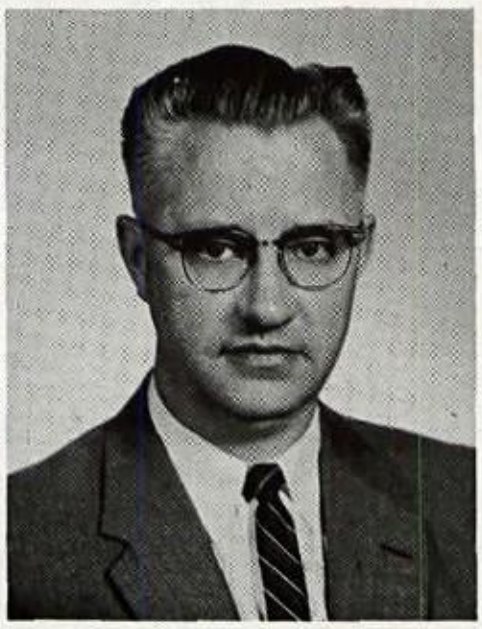
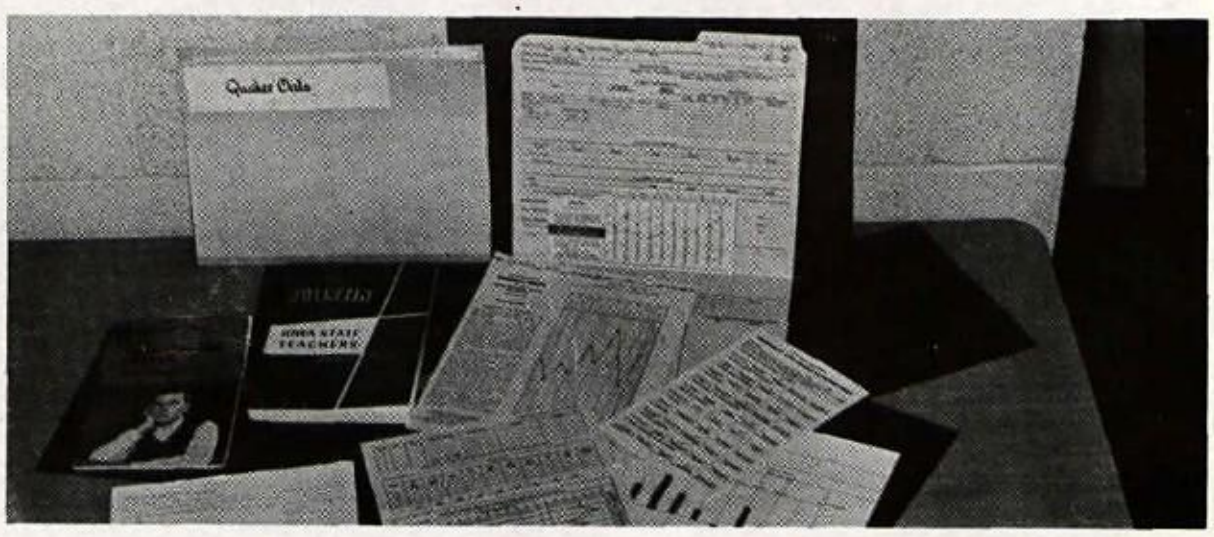
"The primary aim of the guidance program is to utilize and develop special services designed to further the learning of the individual to the maximum degree of his interest, usefulness and ability."

Counselors have a number of functions: orientation; testing program; record-keeping; job placement; information services on the student himself, on careers, on further education and training; evaluation and follow-up; and counseling.

Most of these services are self-explanatory. Counseling, to which the most time is given, may be clarified in this way: counseling assists the student in becoming increasingly self-directive and self-reliant. The counselor tries to help the student take the following steps: (1) to define or recognize the task, choice problem with which he is faced; (2) to study various ways of dealing with it; (3) to plan a course of action and (4) to evaluate the results of the action.



Donald Wagner



Materials used in counseling interviews might include test records, personal data, and educational and occupational information.

The widespread knowledge of the English language in foreign countries has put us on our toes in the English classrooms of America. Often in the front row we have an American Field Service student who speaks and writes our language beautifully and correctly. We are almost embarassed by the "sloppy" way our own people handle their language.

Good writing and speaking practices are a result of careful learning. Bad habits are hard to break,and that is the reason that we must keep pegging away at English year after year as a required subject. When pupils reach a certain level of proficiency, they are able to read and enjoy the products of English and literature, and the drudgery is over.

Good English is the key to the doors of learning.

Interest Through Varied Activities

Reading improvement is the theme of the film being shown to Mr. Ray Gorman's sophomore English class.

Miss Florence Leiter has enriched her English Literature background by travel in Canterbury country. She points out the locale to Dixie Carr.

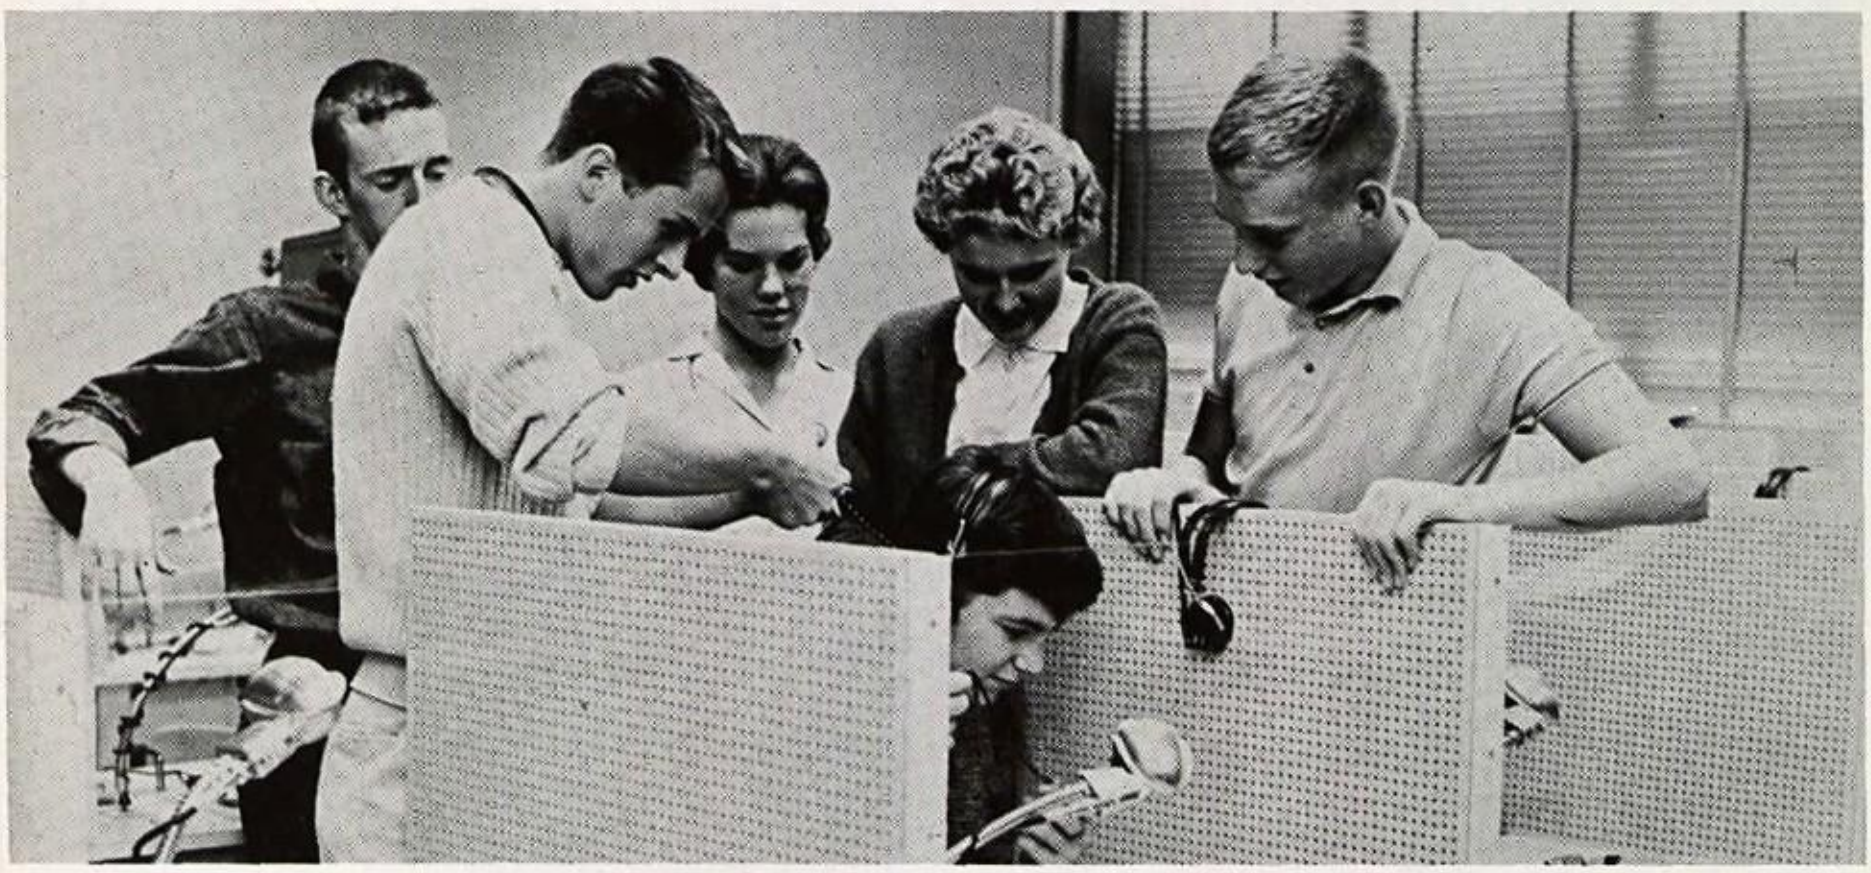
The goals of the Foreign Language department are to offer as much language as students can profitably study, to study normal curriculum in Foreign Language and experiment in new approaches to strengthen and develop consistently, to study cultures and social aspects of countries whose languages are studied, to study U.S. attitudes toward peoples and governments whose languages we study, to achieve as great a fluency as possible, and to read as much of the literature as possible.

To help carry out these goals the facilities include a language lab, films, Foreign language tapes, records, slides and an overhead projector.

All students can elect a foreign language, but must sign up for at least two years. Students are encouraged, if possible, to schedule three or four years of a language. The student can begin in the 8th grade with French, in 9th with Spanish, and German 10th.



Representatives from various language classes experiment with the language laboratory.

The Science Department offers full year courses in Biology, Chemistry, Physics and Physical Science. Achievement in the sciences depends upon such factors as persistence, accuracy and a continuing desire to learn and understand.

Every high school graduate will have received instruction in two years of science, with the exception of those who elect to specialize in business and shop courses. The fundamental principles receive emphasis in each of the four courses. These principles meet the science needs of those who complete their formal education with high school as well as those who intend to pursue higher education.

In keeping with the demands for science education, there will be two more science classrooms available in the new addition at Washington High School.

Three years ago a pilot program was started in the Junior High Schools for those students with high mathematical aptitude. This program is now changing the curriculum in the Senior High Schools. Last year we offered a combined one year course in Plane and Solid Geometry to the incoming sophomore class. This year these students are taking the traditional senior mathematics courses, Trigonometry and Fourth Semester Algebra. Next year, as seniors, they will take a one year mathematics course especially designed for them.

Because of the wide range of mathematical ability at Washington the Mathematics Department last year developed a new course called Intermediate Mathematics. This course has grown from two sections last year to five this year.

Social Studies help to bring unity to formal education by providing the framework for understanding and appreciating the various areas of study. Such courses as art, music, and literature become more intelligible when implanted upon a setting of history and other social studies. By their very nature, the phases of social studies are inter-twined. Hence, they also magnify and enrich each other. Together, they help to give students an all-inclusive picture of the story of mankind. They give perspective to the future as well as to the past. Students with a background of social studies are better able to comprehend and interpret current affairs.

A knowledge of social studies encourages an appreciation for our world and American heritage and gives to the learner a reasoned basis for patriotism. Also, the classroom may serve as a testing ground for the practical application of the democratic processes.

Our curriculum is unique in that a variety of subjects is offered which tends to meet the individual interests and abilities of our students. Many students are interested in preparing for office positions. Others are interested in courses strictly for personal use. Still others are interested in courses which will help them in college--either by way of securing part-time work, becoming business teachers or preparing for some other business profession such as an accountant, a lawyer or an office manager.

In preparing for office positions one can choose the clerical or stenographic sequence. Depending on the area of their choice, students are trained to become typists, machine operators, file clerks, receptionists, secretaries, stenographers, and bookkeepers. Courses included in these areas are: Typing, Shorthand, Clerical Practice, Senior Stenography and Bookkeeping.

The courses designed for personal use are personal typing, bookkeeping and business law.

Business students get practical experience by actually working in the school offices and by doing work for faculty members.

Many new business machines have been purchased for use in the department. Audio-visual equipment is being used extensively throughout all classes. A new overhead projector is in operation in the bookkeeping classes.

A business club Future Business Leaders of America, is sponsored by this department. This group is provided many experiences by which they can become a more integral part of the business community.

In Business classes, students learn to operate the rotary calculator as demonstrated by Gene Ann Pegram.

The Washington Music Department offers a variety of opportunities for students to take part in musical activities.

In the vocal field pupils may progress from elective classes, Girls Chorus and Mixed Chorus, to the advanced Men's Choir and Girls Choir, or to the most advanced group the Concert Choir.

In the instrumental field students may elect band and/or orchestra. Members progress from elementary and junior high organizations and are accepted at the recommendation of the director.

Washington offers the more advanced course entitled Music Horizons. This class gets a background in music history, appreciated theory and harmony, orchestration and composition, creating in them a better understanding of music as an art.

The aim of the music department is to present the opportunity to study, sing, and play the best in musical literature.

Because seventy-five percent of our communication time is spent in either speaking or listening, Speech is now a required subject at the sophomore level. For the student who has an added interest in Speech a number of electives in the Speech Field--Advanced Speech, Dramatic Arts and Production Techniques--are offered. In addition to the courses in Speech, the extra curricular program offers forensics, debate and plays.

"It isn't so much hard work as hard fun." The study of dramatics is an enriching, rewarding, and disciplinary experience. The study of drama as literature enriches our appreciation of some of the great authors past and present. Approached with a real desire to understand, the study of drama with the necessity for understanding a character in order to present him to an audience is an aid for understanding the people among whom we live. Any student accepting a role in a dramatic production or on a production crew learns to cooperate in order to produce a polished production. "The self-discipline necessary to get this work done and also keep on with his other responsibiilities aids in the student's maturation.

For students interested in art and its use in daily life, Washington's well equipped Art Department offers courses.

The Basic Art course is an exploratory course which encourages the student to find and develop his art interests and potentials. Advanced General Art encourages further exploring in the media of painting, print making, drawing, and sculpture. In courses of Jewelry and Metal Craft, Ceramics, and Design and Material, the student develops his ideas into finished products. Through Art History and Appreciation the student develops an understanding of the artist's intentions, his problems, and of the culture in which he worked.

Home And Family Living Aids Both Girls And Boys

Education in home and family living is fundamental to the growth and development of an individual. If all members of a family are to live together harmoniously, the adolescent needs to learn to accept responsibility as a member of the family. Home and Family education recognizes the home as a place where children and adults find security, develop character, and learn a satisfying pattern of life. Our home and family curriculum is built around the characteristic needs and wants of the high school student in a family centered program. This program helps the individual to become more conscious of his home and community responsibilities. He will become a better friend and citizen by particpating in a variety of experiences which will give him confidence in his ability to meet new situations as they arise with the greatest satisfaction.

Safe Driving Has Three Phase Program

The automobile has become a dominant factor in American society. The ability to operate an automobile safely and expertly in today's traffic is a skill which must be learned through serious study and supervised practice.

Safe Driving students at Washington are given a three phase program of instruction. One-third of the course is devoted to classroom study. Another one-third of the time is spent in the Drivotrainer cars. The remaining one-third of the student's time is spent in the dual-control car. Here the student is able to practice in traffic the skills and techniques which he has learned indoors.

By applying the skills and attitudes acquired in Safe Driving class, students should be able to look forward to many miles of accident-free driving.

Industrial Arts Department Advocates

Lloyd Wilson | Wayne Basler | Lyle Grooters | William Holdren | Marion Warner

Industrial Arts education has a great challenge and an unparalleled opportunity for service today in the present educational program. By teaching the student to use and think with machines and tools it contributes something that he can't learn in any other area. It is a curriculum area that makes realistic contribution to life adjustment education.

It provides for all types of living, those that go on to college get the practical as well as the technical training for their profession. It trains tomorrow's scientists as well as mechanics, carpenters, designers, electricians, printers, tool designers and machinists. The practical experience of actually doing will help others who do not enter industrial occupations to be better equipped to make home repairs or better use of leisure time.

The Industrial Arts curriculum at Washington High School includes the following areas: Auto Mechanics, Drawing, Electricity, Machine Shop, Metal Work, and Woodwork.

After-school intramurals also provide a wide variety of activities in both girls and boys programs.

As their Senior year draws to a close, the graduating class of 1961 can look back on many important and memorable events which have taken place throughout the year.

Early in the Fall, elections were held for class officers. Those elected were Bob Block, President; Tom Nelson, Vice President; Dick Howells, Secretary; and Hugh Forster, Treasurer.

Deciding on a college, job, and future plans was a year-long task for most seniors. Keeping last year's grades up, College Board and scholarship tests, term papers and semester tests provided their biggest worries.

Carol DuToit reigned as queen over the Homecoming festivities. Seniors headed most of the committees which planned the weekend event. The holiday season was highlighted by the traditional senior dance, which was called the Senior Snow Ball. In February the seniors attended their last Birthday Ball. Graduation activities filled their last months of school, climaxed by Commencement on Friday, June 2, in Kingston Stadium.

Dave McIntosh-President

This year's Junior class, being well acquainted with Washington's activities and policies, was able to take an active interest in the school's activities soon after the school year began. Class officers were elected after campaign speeches were given by the nominees before the entire class. Those elected were Dave McIntosh, President; Bob Rush, Vice-President; Cindy Ritenour, Secretary; John Neff, Treasurer.

The Homecoming festivities were a highlight for the Junior class, since two of their homerooms produced winning floats. During the remainder of the year, many honors were won by members of the class as they prepared for the leadership they must show as Seniors.

This year's Junior class, being well acquainted with Washington's activities and policies, was able to take an active interest in the school's activities soon after the school year began. Class officers were elected after campaign speeches were given by the nominees before the entire class. Those elected were Dave McIntosh, President; Bob Rush, Vice-President; Cindy Ritenour, Secretary; John Neff, Treasurer.

This year's Sophomore class added about 560 new faces to the halls at Washington. The first two weeks proved to be quite congested for the new students, and left many impressions in their minds. They were naturally impressed by the size of the building, the high school curriculum, the numerous activities available, and the Senior class. Now that the year is ending, the Sophomores feel that they have become well acquainted with their school and feel that they are now a part of it.

Ruml's Gavel Convenes Forum During Year

President--John Ruml

Secretary--Phyllis Parks

Treasurer--Ken Coleman

Washington Senior High School's Forum is the voice of the student body through elected students. It is one of the most important organizations in the school. Each homeroom elects its representative and an alternative in the spring, who takes the place of an absent representative. The meetings take place weekly during sixth hour. Forum welcomes all other students who are interested in the school affairs and are able to visit the meetings.

Many of the problems of the students and the school activities are handled through Forum. The problems are solved by the whole body or by special committees. There are seven permanent committees which work on their own and report at the Forum meetings that which is important. Projects during the year included the purchasing of a West Davenport pennant and the relettering of the Central Davenport pennant. A wooden basketball mascot was also given to the school. The Forum sponsored the A F S dance given on April 7. Regular projects included handling the Homecoming festivities and the dance given February 11, in honor of George Washington's birthday.

The President and Vice-President are elected in the spring for the following fall. Those interested in running must have at least a C average, have served on Forum for one year and have a petition signed by five percent of the student body. The candidates are then presented in an assembly and are voted on afterwards. The person receiving the most votes becomes President and the next highest, Vice-President. The Secretary and Treasurer are elected by the Forum in the Fall. Also in the Fall those wishing to hold the office of Parliamentarian must take a test on parliamentary rules and procedures. The one receiving the highest score is appointed to the office. All officers serve for the full year. The officers for 1961 were John Ruml, President; Bob Block, Vice-President; Phyllis Parks, Secretary; Ken Coleman, Treasurer; and Bob.Whipple, Parliamentarian.

Forum's Assembly Committee, with Peggy Still as Chairman, was in charge of all-school assemblies. This year they sponsored many assemblies. They started the year with the Cedar Rapids Symphony Concert. The committee presented an assembly featuring Joan Kehret, John Ruml and Sarah Greenlee telling their trips. The AFS assembly was one of the year's highlights. A speech assembly was sponsored in late May.

Ken Coleman headed the Budget Committee which planned an annual budget for the Forum and took charge of the sale of activity tickets. This year the committee prepared a four page budget report which consisted of a summary of the fiscal activities of the previous four years. From this summary, a list of recommendations were presented to the Forum. The Budget Committee investigated the use of vending machines and a student supply store. Class rings were purchased as Christmas gifts for the AFS students by the Budget Committee.

The Safety Committee, with John Wise and Carol Rollins as Chairmen, was in charge of parking conditions, traffic and safety of the school.

To promote general sportsmanship in the school was the duty of the Sportsmanship Committee headed by Janis Gillam. They planned a Mascot for the basketball season.

Foster Parent Plan Cares For Evangelia

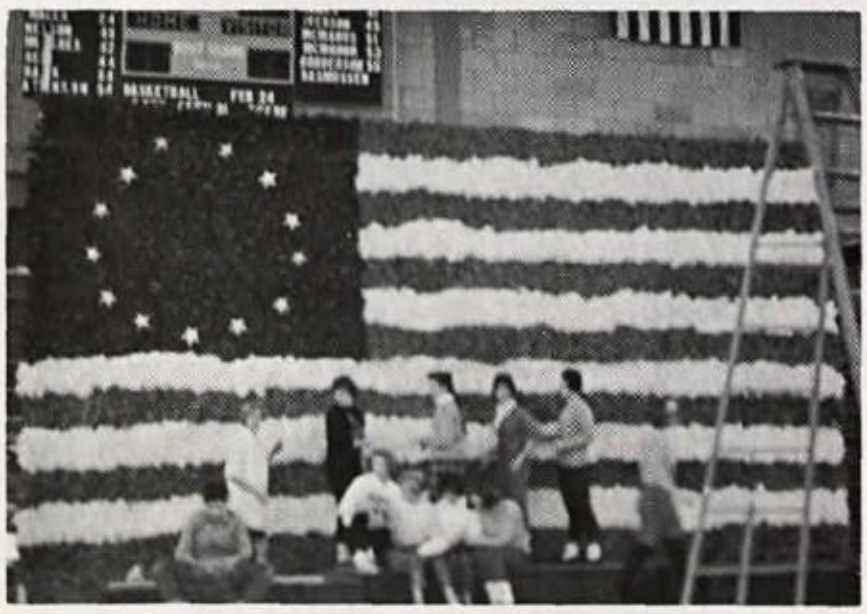
Foster Parent Plan Committee: Dixie James, Kathy Buresh, Bruce Wolfolk, Judy Holly.

This is the third year Washington's Forum has supported Evangelia Tantalidou from Greece. Each year the Forum sends $180, form this $8 a month is given to Evangelia. The remainder of the $180 is spent on necessities, such as: food and clothing for Evangelia and her family. The Foster Parent Plan Committee is responsible for taking care of all the details that come up concerning Evangelia and for reading her letters in Forum.

Evanglia is fifteen, which is quite old for a child to be supported by this plan. Because of this, next year the Washington student body may not be able to care for her.

She carries on a regular correspondence with the Forum. Besides the yearly payment of $180, the Forum sends her presents on special holidays.

Evangelia's family is extremely poor and is barely able to meet expenses with the small income of $30 a month. Evangelia lives with her mother, brother, and sister in a small attic room.



During the school year of 1960-61 Forum made several contributions to Washington High School, which included the purchasing of the West Davenport pennant and the relettering of the Central Davenport pennant. A wooden basketball mascot was also given to the school. The Forum sponsored the A.F.S. dance to raise funds to be used for the expenses of the Exchange Students at Washington this year. Forum also sponsored the Washington Birthday Ball in honor of George Washington's birthday.

A student interest survey was conducted to determine the desires of the student body. With this survey as a basis, action was taken to implement the suggestions of the students.

The National Honor Society was founded in 1921 by the National Association of Secondary School Principals. Its objection was to provide a national standard for reognizing scholarship in the high schools.

Adastra is Washington's chapter of the National Honor Society. Its purpose is to promote in students enthusiasm for scholarship, desire to serve the school and community, development of leadership potential, and desire to develop character.

The National Honor Society has certain broad requirements for membership; but within these requirements, chapters are allowed to set their own standards. Candidates for Adastra membership must have attended Washington at least one semester. Juniors must be in the top fifteen percent of their class and seniors in the top twenty per cent. They must also meet the basic requirements of service, leadership, and character.

Members are elected by a board consisting of the principal and faculty members. Any member who falls below the society's standards may be dropped upon recommendation of the board. Each spring an induction of newly-elected members is held.

Events And Activities Throughout The Year

Each year the Monument, which is the Washington year book, follows a basic theme; the theme for the 1961 year book was the "Element of Time."

In the past the annuals have been similar in pattern, but during the last two years they have been new and original in content and design.

The Monument is divided into ten separate staffs, each working on a different section. These staffs work within their respective groups, but under the supervision of the editors and Mr. Warren, the sponsor. This year two new staffs, the Headline Staff and the Writing Staff, were formed to write the headlines and the write-ups on each page. Assisting all of the staffs are the photographers who took and developed many of the pictures in this year's annual.

The Surveyor is Washington's bi-weekly newspaper published by and for the students. It has a circulation of approximately 1300.

The members of the first Surveyor staff chose the name "Surveyor" for the paper because of the fact that George Washington had been a road surveyor in early life.

A switch to offset type this year meant the addition of two new features: the Translator, a portion published in four foreign languages, and numerous picture pages.

Fun, enjoyment and experience are gained through work on the paper. Many merely like writing while others plan to make some form of it a career.

The Surveyor is included in the purchase of a budget ticket, though it may be bought separately-the cost being a dollar a semester.

This year's permanent staff included: Mary Morris, editor; Anne Mojonnier, news editor; Ed Burkhalter, sports editor; Jim Hubly, advertising manager; Dick Lutzelman, business manager; and Renne Schaffer, circulation manager. Mr. Koehler is the adviser.

The feature pages were written by the journalism classes. Mary Blair, Sharyn Cohn, Marcia Mills, Mary Rieck and Kathy Watson helped with the ideas and lay-out for these pages. Bob Block edited the foreign language page.

Ron Moudy was the photography editor with the assistance of John Wise. The Surveyor's pages are open to the entire student body and faculty; anyone may submit articles as the school newspaper is dependent on its reporters.

Hospitality Club Is Kept On Its Toes

Central Committee: N. Harrington, H. Harrison, C. Brown, D. Lutzelman, B. Killerlain, M. Fernald, B. Strnad, J. Nagel

Hospitality Club at Washington is a service organization. It's main purposes are to (1) render services to other organizations, (2) to render services for school events (3) to conduct guided tours of the building, and (4) to build the character of the individual. In early fall the club acquaints new sophomores with the building and homeroom teachers.

The school year offers an opportunity for all members to serve the school. During study halls visitors are shown the building and points of particular interest. The first day fears of transfer students are put to ease with the help of a Hospitality member, who accompanies the transfer to his homeroom and introduces him to his teacher and then points out other classrooms on his schedule. Club members are on hand in November to help direct the parents at Open House. Through the year members usher at school events such as: plays, musical productions and sport events.

Thespians Stimulate Interest In Drama

Officers: Marianne Platner, Van Neathery, Carol DuToit.

Members study script for next play.

Thespians is an organization created with the purpose of promoting an interest in dramatics and advancing the standards of excellence in dramatic arts.

In applying for membership in the club, one must have ten points or one hundred hours of acceptable work in some phase of dramatics. This may be in a field of costumes, make-up, or acting or a related field of production which includes lighting and scenery. The highlight of the year is the installation of students who have achieved the requirements of the club. The installation includes a group dinner and induction ceremony for the new members.

As a group the club attends dramatic productions in Cedar Rapids and the club has traveled to other towns also to attend productions. Besides the attending of dramatic productions, the club sponsored the group of pantominers who entertained in two school assemblies.

At their monthly meetings members watch demonstrations on make-up, method acting, and costuming presented by club members. With the permission of the participating members, an evaluation is given of speeches, acting, or writings currently being given by other members.

"Arsenic And Old Lace" And "Antigone" Are

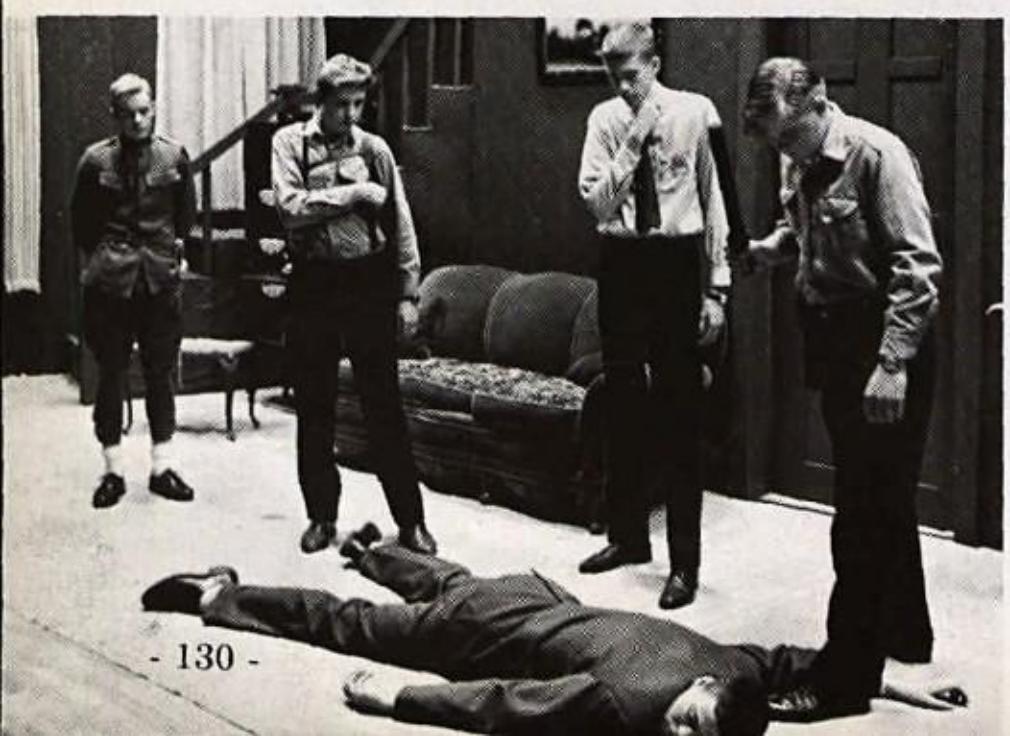
"Teddy, you'll like it at Happydale."

"Who are you?"

"I kind of think he's wanted somewhere."



"Arsenic and Old Lace" was chosen to be the first play to open the 1960-61 Washington school year.

Auditions were held for two days for all interested students. Later the final cast of 14 was posted and rehearsals began.

Any student could sign up for a crew, but the crew heads were chosen from members of the Thespian group.

"Arsenic and Old Lace," a three-act play, was written by Joseph Hesselring. The play opened in the home of two sweet elderly ladies, Abby and Marsha Brewster. Come to find out, these sweet ladies had been poisoning unsuspecting gentlemen. Their reason: To put them out of misery. The bodies were disposed of in the basement by Teddy, who lived in his own world as Teddy Roosevelt. He believed that the basement was the Panama Canal and the men he buried died of yellow fever. All was well until Mortimer, a dramatic critic, stumbled on the escapades of the women. To increase the humor and suspense, Mortimer's brother, Jonathan, returned home. Jonathan and his assistant Dr. Einstein were well-known criminals. All ended well when Mortimer and Elaine got married, Jonathan and Dr. Einstein were arrested for their crimes and Abby, Martha and Teddy finished out their days together at Happy Dale. By the way, the yellow fever victims remained undisturbed in the basement.

"Go to bed, Aunties!"

Presented By The Dramatic Department

Antigone was the first Greek tragedy to have been presented at Washington. The cast consisted of twelve students, casted with the definite character in mind. Antigone was adapted by Lewis Galantiere from the play by Jean Anouieh. The original was from a triad of plays written by Sophocles.

Crean, the King of Thebes, had decreed that Ereocles would be buried with honors while the corpse of his brother Polynices was left unburied to "rot and putrify, and be mangled by dogs and birds of prey." Anyone who attempted to bury Polynices would be put to death. Antigone, sickened by this godless and inhuman edict, planned to bury Polynices. She wanted her sister Ismeme to accompany her, but Ismeme would not disobey her uncle Creon. Antigone was caught, and after a terrific scene between Antigone and Creon, she was entombed alive. Haemon, Creon's son, was planning to be married to Antigone. Upon news of her slow death he joined her in the cave in which she was entombed and later they were buried together. Like most martyrs, Antigone's revolt "bore fruit" only after her tragic death.

At any time during the school year the Spanish Club welcomes any student who has completed one year of Spanish. Led by their President, Maria Martinez, a student visiting Washington from Mexico, the club members conduct their meetings partially in Spanish.

Assisting Maria are Peggy Still, Vice-President; Mary Jen Kubicek, Secretary; Don Altorfer, Treasurer; and Nancy Harrington, the Parliamentarian.

Last year the Spanish Club joined the National Honor Society for Spanish students. This society gives recognition to outstanding students, who have excelled in the Spanish language.

This year the Spanish Club contributed several interesting facts, news articles, and stories written in Spanish to the School newspaper.

Under the direction of their advisor, Mrs. Seigler, the club had undertaken various projects this year. Among these are selling book covers, which had a picture of Washington and the Washington emblem on them. This netted a considerable profit for the club. They also held a potluck Spanish dinner for the club. During the month of December they had a dance which featured Spanish music.

Of French Culture And People

Following the procedure used last year, the third and fourth year French classes organized Le Circle Francais under the direction of the clubs advisor Miss Leven. The officers for the first semester were John Ruml, president; Sandy Shawver, vice president; Phyllis Parks, secretary; and Joan Kehret, treasurer. The second semester officers were John Ruml, president; Barb Langer, vice president; Phyllis Parks, secretary; and Rick Waples, treasurer. Lorna Wheeler and Valissa Cook served as musicians for both semsters. Since the French Club contributed several articles to the school newspaper, Mary Blair was appointed as the club's reporter.

The French Club is open to any student who has completed one year of French. The club meets once a month and is conducted entirely in French. This is done so that members may put their knowledge of the French language to practical use.

At the meetings during the year, the members played games such as: cards and bingo, sang songs, gave skits, reports, and told stories all in French. Through the skits and reports the members learned about France and French civilization.

This year, as a contribution to the school, the French club bought three French-English dictionaries for use in the study halls.

Officers: Rick Waples, Phyllis Parks, Barb Langer, John Ruml.

Forensics is an organization of Washington students interested in speech activities and competition. The only requirement for membership is a sincere interest in promoting speech as an effective means of communications.

Our high school is a member of the Iowa Forensic League and The Iowa High School Speech Association, participating in the latter's contest series.

This year the preliminary round was held at Vinton. Of Washington's fourteen entries, eleven advanced to the District meet at Monticello. In district competition, ten of eleven advanced to the State Finals at Grinnell College.

Bob Block won the State Voice of Democracy Contest and a trip to the National Finals in Washington, D.C. As a tribute to this fine record, Forensics salutes graduating senior, Bob Block, an outstanding member.

Girls Give Study Period To Help Office

During the year students give up their study periods to work in the Main Office. The only requirement for this job is that the student be trustworthy and honest.

Two girls are usually on duty each hour. They pick up absent slips and library passes. Aside from this duty they are kept busy delivering notes to students and special announcements to teachers.

Other students give up their study periods to help in the Counselor's Office. Workers in this office deliver notes to students telling them of appointments with the various counselors.

The Future Teachers of America at Washington is open to any member of the junior or senior class interested in becoming more familiar with teaching. The main purpose of this club is to help students decide whether or not they have a sincere desire to become teachers.

To help acquaint these students with teaching, several teachers from other schools in Cedar Rapids have attended club meetings to discuss the education necessary to become a teacher, teacher's salaries, and how a teacher plans his schedule. This year the club has been visiting various schools in the area. By watching teachers in action, they are able to get an idea of the approach taken by teachers in the different levels of the educational system.

The club took over the concession stand at one of the basketball games to help meet expenses. The President this year was Bob Whipple; Susan Bradley was Vice-President; Dixie Carr, Secretary; and Charles Kirkpatrick, Treasurer. Miss Venzke served as the club's advisor assisted by Miss Wellborn.

Section, And Encourages School Spirit

Any Washington student desiring membership in Pep Club could join at the beginning of each semester. The purpose of the club was to promote school spirit and to encourage good sportsmanship at all school events.

At the bi-weekly meetings such business was carried on as: planning bus trips to out-of-town sport events, learning new cheers from the cheerleaders, and securing volunteers to work on one of the may rotating committees.

There were four permanent committees-Social, Ways and Means, Pep Assembly and Publicity. The Social committee planned dances, parties, and other activities. They also sold programs at the football games. The Ways and Means committee was the financial branch of the club. They sold the mums and shisharoos during homecoming week. The Pep Assembly committee planned all the pep assemblies and worked out the skits. The Publicity committee made signs advertising all of the sports events.

Sport events were announced to the student body by clever signs put up in the halls by Pep Club members. A new project this year was the organizing of a cheering section at basketball games.

Pep Club through its many school activities fulfill its purpose: to promote school spirit throughout the year.

"Wonderland By Night" A Show To Remember

"Wonderland By Night," this year's annual water show theme given on March 9 and 10, provided the highlight for Washington's Seaquins, which is a selective syncronized swimming organization.

In the fall all interested girls, including those from the previous year, auditioned for membership for Seaquins by performing designated figures, swimming the various strokes to music, and doing a short routine to music with another girl. The thirty girls who were selected for membership were divided into two groups--A and B. Group A was the major and more experienced group, while group B was a "learning group," both under the supervision of Mrs. Brockway, the advisor.

The club's purpose is to create an interest in synchronized swimming and to present an annual water show given in the spring. Several groups from the show, "Wonderland by Night" are pictured on this page.

Dennis Harvie

Dennis Harvie, our foreign exchange student from Melbourne, Australia, spent the 1960-61 school year with Tom and Kathy McClain. Dennis has two older brothers and a younger sister at home.

Before coming to Cedar Rapids, Dennis attended Brighton High School in Melbourne, where he was a senior. In the typical Australian manner, Dennis is very interested in sporting activities. He likes swimming, sailing, shooting, tennis and fishing.

He is very happy that he had the good fortune to attend WHS. Dennis reported that he had a wonderful time and did not look forward to leaving his adopted home.

Sarah Greenlee spent her summer as an American Field Service exchange student in Bergan, the second largest city in Norway.

Sarah's Norwegian family consisted of her father, who is a chemical engineer; her mother; her older sister, Eva 19, who had been an A F S'er to California; and her younger sister, Bente, who was the only member of the family who didn't speak English.

Sarah and her family did many things together, such as: visiting several interesting places in Bergan and vacationing in the country.

"Going away from my country for a year makes me analyze it vividly, for the first time in my life. I didn't realize before how beautiful the palms swaying under the tropical skies are."

Leila Ilan, from the Philippines, is staying with Nancy Harrington. They share many interests such as sewing and dress designing. Leila participates in Pep Club, Hospitality, and Concert Choir.

Lily, as she is fondly called, loves to read, draw, listen to records, and go to basketball games.

Lily will never forget Washington High School. She will take home with her the memories of friendly Cedar Rapids.

Niels Svendson

Niels Svendsen from Denmark, spent this year with Bob Long. He felt he was very fortunate to have the opportunity to live with the Long family.

The things that surprised Niels the most about Washington were the swimming pool and the big gym.

Niels does not receive credit for this year at WHS, but he feels that he has gained a special knowledge which will be useful to him in the future. "I wish everyone could have the experience to live as a foreign exchange student."

Isil Tunay

Isil Tunay, our foreign exchange student from Ankara, Turkey, spent the school year with Sarah Greenlee.

Isil says, "if I ever have the chance to come back to Cedar Rapids, the first place I would visit would be Washington." One of her greatest experiences was to learn what Americans were really like.

When Isil goes back to Turkey, she is planning to attend the Technical University of Ankara.

The things Isil liked the most about the United States were long week-ends, food, jazz and Washington Seniors!

Students Whirl Through Homecoming-

Room 116 places first for Beauty.

Room 237 places first for Comedy.

Room 122 places first for Originality.

The first excitement of homecoming festivities began with the thought of each homeroom constructing a miniature float. The real excitement began to rise with the preliminary queen elections. Spirits were raised to the hilt at the big pep assembly and bonfire. On October 20 students crowded into the Washington gym and prepared to see the homeroom floats. Winners were room 237 for Comedy, room 122 for Originality, and room 116 for Beauty. After the $5 prize had been awarded, students bundled into heavy coats and headed for the parking lot to watch the bonfire.

The homecoming game came on Friday, October 21, when Washington was host to Iowa City. During Half-time, the queen and her attendants were presented to the student body.

Chosen by the student body were the queen, Carol DuToit and her eight attendants, Brooke Morrison, Toni Leibsohn, Pam Kimm, Carol Brown, Judy Haworth, Janis Gillam, Isil Tunay, and Sharon Kegler.

Finally, the Homecoming Dance completed the exciting week-end. The Dance was held in the gymnasium which was decorated on a "Blue Mist" theme. The queen was crowned, thus climaxing the 1960 Homecoming activities.

Coach Holdren

Head coach Bill Barnard developed another fine team this year which provided many thrills and excitement. All of the games were very close and the team ended the season with a 3-6 record.

Mr. Barnard is a veteran at coaching as he coached at Wilson and Franklin before coming to Washington. Among Coach Barnard's many laurels are his 1958 Mississippi Valley Champions and his all-star, All-American fullback, Bruce Kohl.

Bud Rainbow completed his fourth year as varsity backfield coach. Mr. Rainbow is an advocate of hard-work, determination and hustle.

Don "Hatchetman" Erusha, varsity line coach was a football player himself in college. He played for Coe College in Cedar Rapids. This is his third year of coaching at Washington.

Coach Bill Holdren completed his first year as an assistant varsity coach. One of his main duties was scouting other teams.

Although the Warriors ended with three wins and six losses this year, their play was more impressive than the record shows. Many of the losses were just by a few points and some bad luck.

The first game of the season was lost to a highly rated East Moline team 6-0. The jinx was continued as the Warriors lost to Burlington 21-19 and then were defeated 14-7 by Dubuque, runner-up in the Conference. The Warriors then found the range as they defeated West Davenport 20-6 and rolled over city rival, Jefferson, 13-7.

The top game of the season for the Warriors was at Rock Island. The Warriors led 6-0 until the Rocks, winners of the Mississippi Valley Conference, made a touchdown and an extra point in the final seconds of the first half. The Warriors quickly scored a touchdown in the third quarter to go ahead, 13-7. Then the Rocks turned two Warrior fumbles, deep in Washington territory, into two touchdowns to win, 21-13. The Warriors were stopped twice on the Rocks one yard line.

The remaining games of the season were a 14-12 win over Clinton and a visiting loss to Moline, 32-19.

The Warriors dominated the all city grid selections with nine players. Mike Hawk, end; Bob Grenko, fullback; Cliff Rice, Halfback; Al Techau and Tim Gutierrez, guards; and Ed Burkhalter, tackle were voted to the first team. Terry Baugh, end; Justus Reid, quarterback; and Olen Gibson, halfback, were voted to the second team. Mike Hawk, outstanding Warrior end, also captured a first team spot on the all-conference team and made second team all-state. Bob Grenko made second team all-conference halfback, and Ed Burkhalter and Tim Gutierrez received honorable mention.

This year the Washington Sophomore team compiled a record of three wins and six losses. Their first game of the season was their best as they beat Dubuque 12-7. In this game the Sophomores rolled up an impressive 400 yards rushing against the Dubuque defense. Their average rushing yardage all season was well over 300 yards, and because of this Coach Don Hart said his boys had to rely very little on passing.

Coach Hart was very pleased with his team because of the great desire they had to work and with the big effort they produced. He felt that this team effort made the season successful for him and that every football team should have these ingredients. Coach Hart also said that several of his boys were good prospects for the next year's team.

Two easy points for Hawk.

Don Shupe, in his second year as basketball coach at Washington, has completed another successful season. At press time his over-all record for two years was 26-12 and 12-5 for this season. The team, which finished second in the Conference, provided many thrills from the coaching standpoint. Several times this season the Warriors had to come from behind in the waning seconds to win. Mr. Shupe attributed the season's success to the players' comeback attitude, great defense, desire, and balanced scoring. He felt that these should be the requirements for every team.

Only Ed Bastian of six regulars on the team will be back next year. But Coach Shupe felt that the juniors and sophomores of this year will help the team tremendously. The season looks promising.

Bill Holdren not only assisted Mr. Shupe with the varsity again this year, but he also coached the Junior Varsity to a 13-1 record in the Conference. This was Mr. Holdren's second year as Assistant Coach.

The 1960-61 basketball season was the most successful in Washington's history. The Warrior team had an over-all season record of 12 wins and 6 losses and a 10-6 Conference record put them in second place tie with Rock Island behind Moline. The team beat all of their opponents at least once except for Rock Island and East Moline. The non-conference wins were against Burlington and Marion in the first two games of the season.

The season provided several very exciting games against Iowa City, Moline, and Davenport Central. Gary Macek's jump shot in the last three seconds won the Iowa City game, after the Warriors trailed by 5 points with 50 seconds left. Then the highlight of the season was the game at Moline. The Maroons had an 11-0 Conference record and had barely beaten Washington in the first game here. With two seconds left in regulation play Mike Hawk hit two free throws to send the game into two overtimes. During the second one Justus Reid hit a jump shot to win the game. The score was 49-46.

Tom Nelson, Mike Hawk, Justus Reid, Ed Bastian, Gary Macek, Cliff Rice all started games during the season. Tom Nelson led the team in scoring and placed fourth in the Conference with a 15.2 average. Washington had a fine defensive average of 50.2 points per game. At the end of the regular season the Warriors were rated fourth in the state and second in the Northeast District.

In past season elections Mike Hawk and Tom Nelson were named to the All-Conference 1st team. No other Iowa team placed any players on the first team and Washington was the only team to place two.

This year the Warrior Sophomores placed sixth in the Mississippi Valley Conference with seven wins and nine losses. Coach Herb Henry feels that every team should be measured in terms of improvement; for this reason plus hard work and co-operation from the boys, the team was one of his best. After starting slowly, the Sophomores steadily improved and in the last month of the season played their best games. These were against Iowa City, Jefferson and an exciting Moline game which saw our Sophomores lose in the final minute.

Coach Henry and Assistant Coach Bob Mueller, who is in his first year, felt that with more experience the Sophomores should greatly aid the Varsity next year. Coach Henry's teams now have won 47 and lost 29 in his four years at Washington.

Steve Gilliatt, Sophomore forward, averaged 15 points per game to place third in the conference.

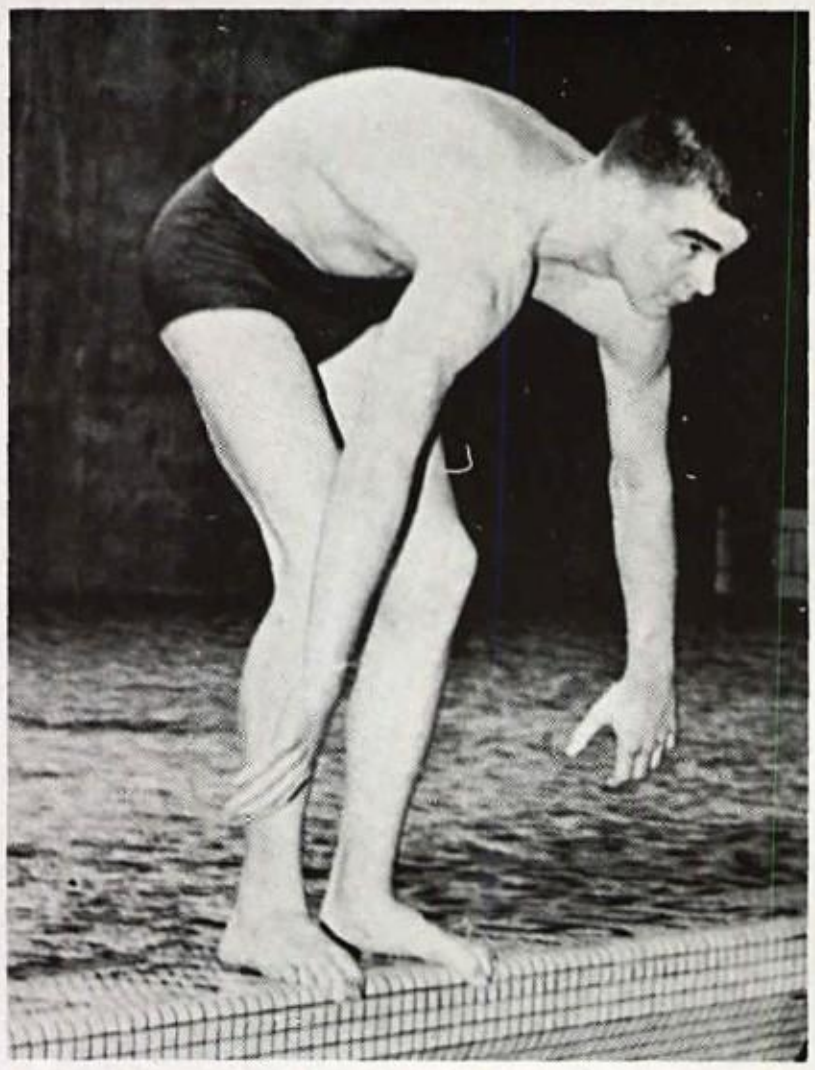
Second place State Freestyle Relay team - Glanville, Hop, Thompson, Brinkman



Washington distance ace-Bruce Howe.

Harold Kriza, in his fifteenth year as a swimming Coach and his fourth at Washington, produced his first State Champion Swim team this year. Coach Krizan had two Gymnastics teams that were State Champions in his coaching career but this is his first in swimming. For the past two years his Warrior Swim teams have gone undefeated in Iowa, as last year Moline was the only team to beat the Warriors. This years State Champions were beaten only once in 18 meets.

Coach Krizan presently holds a total record at Washington of 36 wins and 12 losses in dual meet competition. He attributed the success of this year's team to some new training techniques. Besides weight training, which was instituted last year, he has the boys practice by swimming short sprints instead of long distances. Also some styles of strokes have been changed.

To sum up this season of triumphs Coach Krizan had this statement to make "Nothing succeeds like Success."

Congratulations to the Washington swimmers and their coach, Harold Krizan, on an exceptional season! The Warriors not only ended the regular season with a 15-0 record but they also captured the Conference and State championships. The state championship was won by a margin of 21 points over second place Clinton, avenging the team's only loss of the season to Clinton in the District meet.

Ralph "Soggy" Bextine set two new State records, and several other Warrior swimmers captured top places in the State meet. First Bextine won the State breaststroke in 1:07.2, beating his old State mark of 1:10.7. Then he set a 2:16.4 record in the 200-yard individual medley. Ed Burkhalter took first place in a photo-finish 100-yard butterfly race in the time of 1:59.4. The 200-yard medley relay team of Jim Peterson, Dennis Krizan, Ed Burkhalter, and John Ruml also took first place in 1:51.9, a second off the state record.

Other top performances in the State meet were a second place by Jim Peterson in the 100-yard backstroke, a second place by the 200-yard free style relay team of Wood, Hop, Thompson, and Glanville, fourth place in diving by Tom McClain, third place in 100-yard freestyle by Bruce Hop, fourth in 50-yard freestyle by Glanville, and fourth in 400-yard freestyle by Bruce Howe.

Coach Krizan said that in the past year all team records were broken except for two. Bob Wood broke the 50 and 100-yard freestyle records; Ed Burkhalter, the 100-yard butterfly; Jim Peterson, the 100-yard backstroke; and Ralph Bextine, the 100-yard breast and 200-yard individual medley. The 200-yard medley relay team of Peterson, Bextine, Burkhalter, and Wood swam a 1:47.4 time, which should be fifth or sixth in the nation this year.

The only team records not broken were the 200 and 400-yard freestyle events. Bruce Howe will be aiming for these next year.

The most satisfying meets for the team were their State and Conference championships. Coach Krizan felt that their best meet was a 48-38 win over Moline even with Bob Wood and John Ruml unable to compete.

The team will be losing eight regulars by graduation, but Coach Krizan has four strong regulars returning, which will make next season another promising one.

The Wrestling squad had a rough season this year as they won two meets, lost seven, and tied one. The Junior Varsity won six and lost six, while the sophomore squad won three and lost only one. It is very important to remember that a season shouldn't be based on wins and losses. Due to the heavy losses from graduation the year before, the present season was a rebuilding year. There was much material in the Sophomore group. All they needed was experience, which they were able to pick up, as the starting lineups were predominately underclassmen this past season.

Probably the best wrestler on the squad was Bob McNeil, who wrestled at 120 pounds. He had a record of eight wins, three ties, and one loss this season. He was the only wrestler on the squad to reach the State meet. Bob Wright, the most promising Sophomore on the squad, wrestled at 112 pounds during the season and placed third in the District meet. Gary Wilson, who wrestled at 133 pounds, was sidelined for a month in the middle of the season with a shoulder injury, but came back to reach the semi-finals in the district meet. The most improved wrestler this year was Allen Techau, who wrestled at 145 pounds. Two other assets to the squad were Bill Stewart and Jim Hoffman, who are both Sophomores and will return next year.

There still seems to be a shortage of smaller boys out for wrestling, and the coaches, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Erusha, encourage these boys to come out and participate. Because of the shortage, there was only one 95 pounder on the squad during the past season, which meant that Junior Varsity Team had to forfeit five points in every meet. The coaches are looking forward to next season as they hope to receive some help from the junior highs in filling these lower weights.

Wilson's Netsters Feature Six Returning

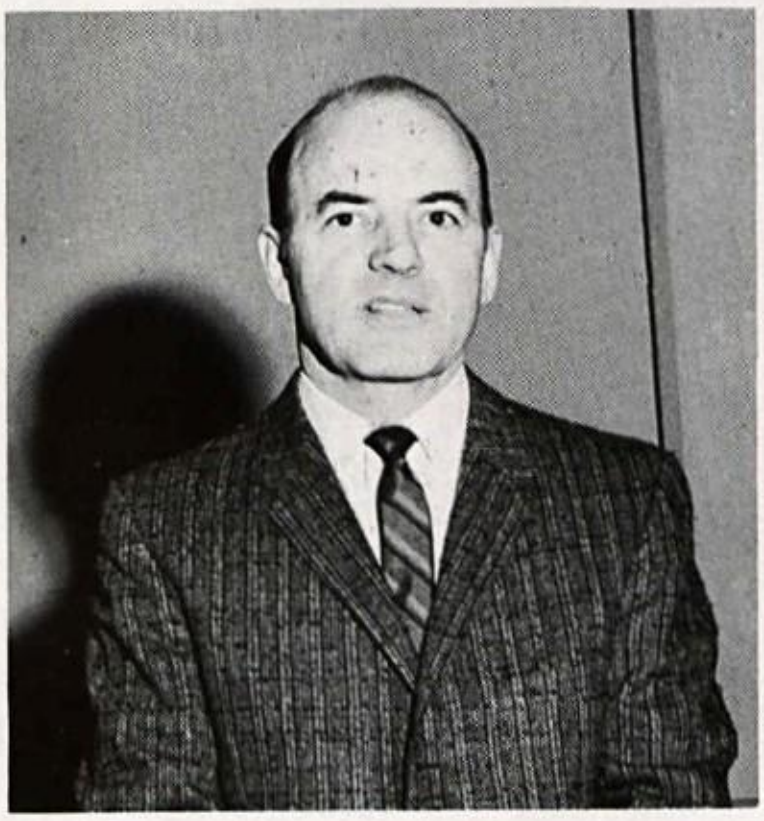
Row 1: N. Nassif, J. Ingle, R. Waples, M. Hardesty, K. Wright-Row 2: R. Miller, R. Howells



Coach Wilson

This will be coach Earl Wilson's twelfth year as a tennis coach. Last year, which was a rebuilding year due to the loss of several seniors by graduation, the team compiled a 3-6 record. However, the record does not tell the true story, as the team lost two very close meets, one of them, 5-4, to the highly rated Jefferson High School team. In the second conference meet, the doubles team of Ken Wright and Rick Waples took the championship. They then went on to win the District Doubles championship. Due to the fact that there were no seniors on last year's team, this year there were six returning lettermen: Ken Wright, Rick Waples, Jim Ingle, Chip Hardesty, Allen Carley, and Nathan Nassif. In addition to the lettermen, top prospects for this year were Dick Howells, a senior, and Rick Miller, a sophomore. With the majority of last year's team returning this year, Coach Wilson is looking forward to what should be a good season for the Washington Senior High School tennis team.

He has his hopes on four returning lettermen - Tom Hunting, John Schenken, Pete Glanville, and Stewart Maples-who are all juniors. His squad, however, lost two important members of last years team by graduation. They were Mark DeVoe and Grant Maples.

Coach Rainbow's 1960 golf squad had a dual meet record of 8 wins and 3 losses and placed second in the Mississippi Valley Conference meet.

This year the squad will play in fifteen matches and Coach Rainbow predicts the season to be better than average with a 2nd or 3rd place finish in the Conference.

Coach Mueller

Coach Don Shupe, in his second year as head coach of baseball, scheduled 19 varsity games for the Season. These 19, plus the tournament games made the fullest season yet for a Warrior team. There were 50 boys who reported out for the team and nine of them were returning lettermen. Five regulars of last year -Mike Avery, Bill Tanner, Pete Stravapoulas, Al Kessler, and Rog Klinzman-were lost by graduation.

Mr. Shupe was looking forward to a promising season at press-time. Mike Hawk, last year's number one pitcher, was back to head the pitching staff, which also included letterwinners Dick Olin, John Marshek, and Terry Schmaberger. With regulars Gary Macek at shortstop and Ferris Winterberg at first base returning, the infield was strong. As yet, the outfield was uncertain and Coach Shupe and Assistant Coach Mueller were concerned about the catching spot.

Last year's varsity had a highly successful 12-2 season. Many games, including some in the tournament, were called off because of rain, however. The Warriors won the Sectional tournament but lost in the District to Keystone 5-4.

In his first year as Cross Country Coach, Mr. Wilkinson guided the Warriors to a successful season. His squad, composed of twenty-five boys, went undefeated in all four of their dual meets. They defeated Jefferson twice and Dubuque twice. The outdoor mile relay team of.Al Bishop, Roger Walker, Phil Hougen, and Gary Dvorak took second place in the conference meet at Davenport and third place in the State meet. Bishop, Walker, Hougen, Dvorak, and Jim Halvorson combined to take second place in the Conference Cross Country team race and also fourth in the State Cross Country. These five boys, along with Eric Erickson and Bob Slaybaugh, were the top runners this season.

Coach Wilkinson said that the sophomores on the squad looked promising and should help the team next year.

This was Coach Harold Wilkinson's first year as head coach of track after coming to Washington from Marengo. There were 72 boys who came out for the team and ten were letterwinners from last year. These were Bob Atkinson, Dick Bear, Al Bishop, Dave Dunahugh, Olen Gibson, Denny Krizan, Tom Mathern, Jack Packingham, Bob Smythe, and Rog Walker. Coach Wilkinson said that several sophomores and juniors looked promising. The squad lost nine letterman of last year by graduation.

Coach Wilkinson felt the season produced a tough schedule which included dual meets with Iowa City, Jefferson, and Dubuque, plus the Conference meet, and Drake and Cornell Relays. But, all in all, the season looked hopeful with many boys running well, especially sprinters and medley relay teams.

Coach Wilkinson and Assistant Coaches Don Hart and Don Durey all said that more student backing for the track team would be a great asset.
